

Read real Japanese — one diary entry a day.

This is not a textbook. It is a real daily diary, written and recorded by a Japanese woman living in Tokyo. July's volume collects 31 days: a crow that pecked my head one morning, a summer festival in the middle of Shimbashi, and a man of sixty-seven who sails to the Ogasawara Islands.

Each day includes:

- The original Japanese text (kanji)
- A full hiragana version
- Key vocabulary with English meanings
- 1-minute companion audio (QR code inside)

Listen once. Shadow once. Come back tomorrow.
